TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Payment should accompany your registration form unless an invoice or credit/debit card payment has been requested. All fees must be paid in full at least five working days before the course is due to commence or within thirty working days of the invoice, whichever occurs first. Failure to pay may result in the place on the course being withdrawn. For cancellations received up to fifteen working days before a course commences, a 20% administration charge will be made. After this date, fees will not normally be refunded, but places may be transferable for a limited period. An administrative charge may be made in some cases and delegates will be liable for any increase in the course fee since their original registration. Cancellations must be notified in writing.

The University of Edinburgh reserves the right to cancel or postpone a course up to three weeks before the course date, in which case fees will be refunded in full. In the event of cancellation or postponement, The University of Edinburgh will not be liable for registrants' travel or accommodation costs.

THE ROYAL (DICK) SCHOOL OF VETERINARY STUDIES

SOFT TISSUE SURGERY WEEKEND COURSES
RCVS CERT (AVP) MODULES - 2010

INTRODUCTION

These courses are aimed at vets wanting to develop their soft tissue surgery skills. They will be of interest to general practitioners interested in soft tissue surgery as well as supporting those studying for the RCVS Modular Certificate in Advanced Veterinary Practice. The courses cover the key areas and aid self-directed learning for the RCVS C modules - Soft Tissue Surgery C-SAS2 and C-SAS3.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

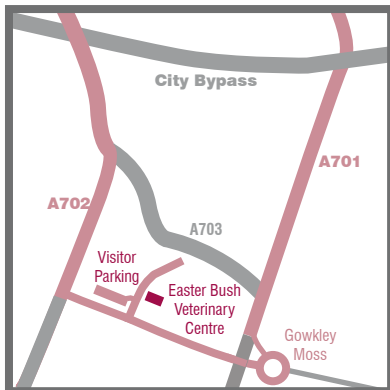

With both modules, you will leave up-to-date and confident to explore new surgical techniques in all of the above areas. The experience and expertise of the dedicated clinicians involved in the training will inspire and motivate you to broaden your personal surgical boundaries.

“AN EXCELLENT COURSE FOR ANYONE WANTING TO DEVELOP THEIR SURGICAL SKILLS”
